FLOOR DEBATE

April 1, 2004

LB 1090

SENATOR SCHIMEK: It is withdrawn. Mr. Clerk.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: (Microphone malfunction) Madam President.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Yes, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: If there are amendments pending, how is he going to just withdraw that amendment?

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Senator Chambers, at the moment when the request was made, there were no amendments to the amendment under consideration, so it was a timely request.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I object.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: What's your point of order, Senator Chambers?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: What did you ask me, Madam President? I was occupied.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: What is your point of order? Would you...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I didn't raise a point of order. I just objected.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Would you explain your objection?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, yes, I don't want it done. (Laughter)

SENATOR SCHIMEK: We're going to move on, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Madam President, it's his amendment and when he decides that he's had enough and he's been well whipped and he wants to withdraw it, he can do it without getting permission.

SENATOR SCHIMEK: Senator Chambers, I don't think we had...we need the editorial comment. Thank you.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I take it back.
